ARCHITECTS UILDING. MY LUCK IN A TUNNEL.

BY MRS. KIRKLAND.

I am an old miner. Not one of the owaday Washoe and Nevada stripe, but in old '49 California miner. I have been engaged in all descriptions of mining transactions, except the new-fan-gled one of mining stock in companies 'feet" I believe they call it. Among my varied undertakings was one operation in a tunnel, in which myself and my partners engaged in the summer of 1852.

One afternoon in that year, as I was carrying up a bucket of water from the river to our tent at the top of the bank, my foot caught under a large stone, and my perpendicular was at once changed to a horizontal posture, while the water from the overturned bucket spread itself in various directions. With a few exple-tives of rather forcible character, quite customary and common in that region and period, I raised myself to my feet again, and, picking up the bucket, was about to retrace my steps to the river, when my attention was attracted by a folded paper which had been placed un-der the stone causing my fall. When my foot tripped, the stone was overturned, and the paper, folded in letter form, lay C. SPECHT, PROP. and the paper, folded in letter form, lay exposed to view. Bending over, I picked and the it up, and proceeded to examine it. It was written in pencil, in characters irregularly and stiffly formed, as if made by a person with a wounded hand. The con-

Swift's Specific

Swift's Specific has cured me of Scrofula, which is hereditary in my family. I have suffered with it for many years, and have tried a great many physicians and all sorts of treatment, but to no purpose; and when I began to take Swift's Specific I was in a horrible condition, but thanks to this great remedy, I am rid of the disease. There is no doubt that it is the greatest medicine in existence, and I ho, o any who doubt will write to me.
